DAYS OF MY YOUTH.

[The following touching lines were written by the elder St George Tucker (step-father of Mr. Randolph), and it is said that they so affected John Adams in his old age, that he declared he 'would rather have written them than any lyric of Milton or Shakespear :"]

Days of my youth, ye have glided away,
Hairs of my youth, ye are foste ed and gray ;
Eyes of my youth, your keen sight is no mor',
Cheeks of my youth, ye are furrowed all o'er ;
Strength of my youth, all your vigor is gone,
Thoughts of my youth, your gay visions are flown

Days of my youth, I wi h not your recall,
Hairs of my youth, I'm content ye should fall ;
Eyes of my youth, you much evil have seen,
Cheeks of my youth, bathed in tears you have been ;
Thoughts of my youth, you have led me astray,
Strength of my youth, why lament your decay ?

Days of my age, ye will shortly be passed,
Pains of my age, yet awhile you can last ;
Joys of my age in true wisdom delight,
Eyes of my age be religion your light ;
Thoughts of my age, dread ye not the cold sod,
Hopes of my age be fixed on our God.

QUEEN AUGUSTA—WAR AND WOMAN'S AMBITION—THE FUTURE EMPRESS OF GERMANY—THE HISTORY AND POPULARITY OF THE QUEEN.

[From the New York Free Press.]

The war in Europe, which has ruined one Empress and rendered her an exile and a wanderer, will probably result in the elevation of another royal lady to the Imperial dignity. For long years Queen Augusta, wife of the King of Prussia, has entertained the ambition of becoming Empress of Germany. She was impressed with this idea long before she reached the throne, and no doubt impressed her ideas upon the mind of her husband.

Queen Augusta is known by her most intimate associates to be a most ambitious woman. She is not wanting in any element of true womanhood. Her devotion as a wife and mother are appreciated by her family, while her deeds of kindness and charity render her deservedly beloved and popular. But with these more sterling home qualities she combines a large knowledge of men and politics, and takes a deep interest in all that relates to literature and art. Her Majesty is a daughter of the famous Duke who was the munificent friend and patron of Goethe, and in her youth she came much in contact with that illustrious author, and her character in no slight degree was influenced if not modeled by him. With these antecedents and qualifications, she could hardly fail to take a deep interest in the great events of which her court has been for so many years the center.

In taste, cultivation and intellect, she is vastly superior to her husband, who is simply a large, bluff honest, hearty, self-willed, and somewhat dull gentleman. The Queen has too much good sense to ever obtrude in State affairs. But there can be no doubt that her quiet unseen influence has frequently turned the scale in favor of Bismarck's large brained policy, when the obstinate, timid King was inclined to hold back.

An anecdote illustrating Her Majesty's capacity for politics is not generally known. In 1848-49, after the Berlin insurrection, the insanity of the old King of Prussia, brother to his present Majesty, became more marked, and led to numberless court intrigues. The dominant faction, of course, attempted to make light of the malady, their object being to govern in the King's name. It was denied that he was insane, and at worst, his malady did not incapacitate him from business. The difficulty was increased by the unwillingness of the physicians to pronounce any definite opinion. It was under these circumstances that her Majesty, then Crown Princess, invited Dr. Roecker, the most distinguished physician and philosopher in Berlin, to the palace. She received him entirely in a friendly, and not in a professional capacity. She led the conversation on general subjects of art, and at length glided naturally to the absorbing question of the King's illness.—The Princess expressed the grief of the family, and asked, was there really any hope of his Majesty's complete restoration to mental and physical health. The physician, throwing off his guard, replied that there was "not the slightest hope."

The Princess instantly arose, pushed open some folding doors of a room, in which were seated members of the Council, legislators, members of the royal family, and the high officers of State. With a commanding voice she ordered Professor Roecker to repeat his statements respecting the condition of the King's health. He had no alternative but to obey, and, in a few day, her husband was declared Regent with full authority. He retained his position until he assumed the title of King on occasion of his brother's death, which occurred a few years afterward.

The large ambitious character of Queen Augusta, as we have stated, exercised an influence upon the King. So shrewd an observer as Bismarck has always recognized this feminine quality as a favorable test in selecting male diplomatic agents. On one occasion he was in doubt about the fitness of a certain appointment he desired to make, until he was informed that the wife of the candidate was a peculiarly ambitious lady. This turned the scale, and the appointment was duly effected.

DON'T QUARREL ABOUT IT.—The Democrats, Whigs, and Conservatives of Virginia, says the Knoxville Herald, will tolerate no quarrel about names As in Tennessee and in other States, here and there one is found to vociferate at the top of his voice for the name of Democrat, or Whig, or Conservative. There is no wisdom in clinging, at a time like this, to names. We want something substantial, we want concert of action on the part of those who oppose the Radical party, no matter what may have been their former party designations. What does it matter to men outlawed from participation in the civil administration of the Government, and loaded down with taxes to support a horde of adventurers who have seized upon the offices of the Southern States, by what name they are called, if by union they can overthrow their oppressors? It is nonsense to quarrel about names; it is almost a crime. Does every sensible man, woman, and child not know that while this piping and prating about names is going on the Radicals are laughing, not only in their sleeves, but in every garment they wear? And does not the most benighted know that it is only by a solid column, composed of men of every former name and creed, marching to the conflict with one heart, one purpose, and one battle cry, that the Radicals can be overthrown?

PRESIDENT GRANT AND MISSOURI POLITICS.—St. Louis, September 20.—A letter received to-day by Charles W. Ford, United States internal revenue collector for this district, from President Grant, contains the following: "I regard the movement headed by Carl Schurz and Brown & Co. as similar to the Tennessee and Virginia movements, intended to carry a portion of the Republican party over to the Democrats and thus give them control. I hope you will all see your way clear to give the regular ticket your support."

CARROW AND KIRK.

The people at the ballot box and by the moral force of public sentiment have vanquished Holden and Kirk, and now they are encountered by Carrow and Kirk. Carrow will not be able much longer in defence of Kirk to defy Judge Watts and Sheriff Lee. We can drive Carrow from his position in sheltering Kirk and we will do it.

We hear that the Governor has been consulted, and in fact, it is his plan to protect his "christian friend Kirk" from the criminal law of North Carolina. The Marshal informed us on the day of Kirk's arrival, that he could give bail easily; there were half a dozen of the best gentlemen in the State ready to go Kirk's bail. If that be so, why is Sheriff Lee forbidden by the United States Marshal to execute a bench warrant on Kirk? The Marshal at the same time informed us, we were not to say anything of him in the SENTINEL, except for a failure to do his duty as a public servant. If we did we might have it to take back. We told him we should always speak the truth of him and we would be sure not to retract it.

We now understand the Marshal's threat to us. He had then determined on sheltering Kirk from the execution of the criminal law upon him. He knew he would deserve the animadversion of the people and of the press, and hence his threat in advance. We are safe in talking about Marshal Carrow in this matter, for he has given us permission, this being an official act.

We think Carrow pretty safe; he has the Governor's word and, perhaps, bond and security, that Kirk shall be forthcoming.—Carrow is bound by his bond, to the amount of $28,000, for Kirk's appearance. He should call on the "half dozen best men in the State" to go Kirk's bail or commit him for the want of it, or he should allow his Deputy Marshal Detective Doshier to accompany Sheriff Lee, with Kirk, to Judge Watts on the bench warrant. Sheriff Lee was advised by his counsel that it was his duty to execute the warrant. His Deputy told us he had "partially" executed it, and we suppose would have fully executed it but for the Marshal.

How came Marshal Carrow at Renfrow's at 9 o'clock at night? We heard Sheriff Lee tell his Deputy, Magain, to inform the Marshal of his purposes to take Kirk. We protested, then, against giving such information. If Sheriff Lee had gone, as we urged him, he could have executed the writ.

We tell the Marshal, Sheriff Lee and the Governor, they have all laid themselves liable to indictment, and Judge Watts, since the last election, is in no frame of mind to adjourn Court upon the finding of a true bill.

BEECHER AND TOURGEE, GREELEY, HOLDEN AND ABBOTT.

These are historic names, and, though separated, some of them, from each other by hill and dale, mountain and valley, they are so connected in the sayings and doings, the proceedings, preparations and projects of the great anti-republican oath-bound faction which has subverted our form of government and well-nigh destroyed our liberties, that history will hand them down to posterity as belonging to the same faction and engaged in the same enterprises.

Particularly are the names of these meteoric political lights blended and connected in the Tourgee letter affair, but we don't think any of them, and especially Holden, will feel much pride in the distinction which their connection with this affair gives them.

We published the Governor's explanatory card in connection with the letter garbling at his own request, made through the Standard while he was filling his contract with Wm. A. Smith & Co., which included his son Joe, to "edit Joe Turner." He asked it of course editors, "as a matter of justice" to publish his card, and we must confess that we had ill feeling enough to the fellow to induce us to comply, because we knew his "explanation" would fasten the charge on him in the estimation of all intelligent men. The Governor's card certainly appears to convict him of garbling that letter.

About the time of the garbling of this letter, Kirk and his men, under direction of the Governor, were hanging men by the neck in Alamance to make them confess to things contained in this same letter. As Greeley says, the Governor was deeply interested in the matter, and the garbling of the letter was a move in sustaining that interest.

We say and every honest man in the State acquainted with the facts, will say, that the Governor could garble the letter as charged, and yet lose no character by the operation.

When Greeley and Beecher speak, (see extracts as given by us yesterday,) they only prove the truth of what we have said; namely, that Holden shamefully garbled that letter, to the injury of his native State for the pitiful purpose of propping up the waning prospects of his party.

ALMOST A DUEL.

Public opinion and the law condemn duelling. The recent tragic affair at Memphis, Tennessee, very justly called down the universal condemnation of the press against it. We regret that there should be cause for a repetition of it any where, and especially in our own State. Yet there are instances in which gentlemen cannot brook the censure which arises in some minds against every man who declines a duel when challenged. This fact proves that the code itself is not rigorously condemned, as the expression of public opinion would indicate when duels take place and either party is killed. Then all condemn the act, yet the code is still held to be obligatory upon gentlemen. Our laws condemn both the fact of fighting as well as the code itself, and they ought to be rigidly enforced until public sentiment is cured of its errors.

We learn verbally, that W. H. Bailey of Salisbury, was arrested in that place on the 18th inst. on the eve of his departure for Spartansburg, S. C., to meet in fatal combat Maj. A. C. Avery of Morganton, whom he had challenged because of differences which occurred in a trial some months ago. Maj. Avery and his friends proceeded through the country it is said, to meet the engagement, and was up to time on the spot. It is rumored that upon the arrest of Mr. Bailey, he sent for his friends and demanded an investigation to ascertain from the officer if he was at all chargable with causing his arrest. His friends it is said, could find no evidence that he (Bailey) had been instrumental in his arrest. It is further stated, that when this fact came to the ears of his competitor, the case became more complicated, as the action of Mr. B. in having the investigation, seemed to charge the opposite party with having the arrest made, for which however, there was no foundation. How the arrest came to be made is not known, but those who are acquainted with Maj. Avery know that he could have had no knowledge of it, and would scorn such a resort. The duel has been prevented and we are glad of it, but who about Salisbury is entitled to the credit of it, has not transpired.

WHERE IS JO?

Joseph William, the Governor's son, left the city some two weeks ago for parts unknown. He took no carpet bag but several large trunks, sufficient to pack up for a small family and then leave room for State bonds. It was thought Joseph had gone with a letter from Dad to ask President Grant for a "post" or place.

We hear ugly reports of Joseph, but we are not disposed to repeat them for Joseph may do better when he gets from under the influence and evil example of Dad.—Joseph's young friends always spoke well of him as a boy. Four years ago he said he would leave the State because his father's position would prevent his rising. Joseph was mistaken. Dad's position made him rise like yeast but to fall again. If Joseph has gone as the boys say "for good," let him go, for it is a happy riddance.

Littlefield is a generous man, and we have no idea he would see Joseph suffer as long as he has a Florida or North Carolina bond. He owes this to Joseph for the services rendered by Dad. If Joseph had taken old Ashley, the Pilgrim, with him, the State could have borne the loss of Joseph with much more fortitude.

THE RADICAL DEFEAT IN THIS STATE.

The Rutherfordton Star is hard upon its party friends. It says very truly, that the Radical defeat resulted from "the extravaganee and corruption of the Legislature, the appointment of rascals and thieves as Presidents of railroad corporations; the nomination of bad, worthless men for office; and, lastly, incompetency of those placed in power to administer the affairs of the State. We may and, an utter disregard of advice from the best men in the party, and affiliation of the 'powers that be' with corrupt, desegaing scoundrels."

Upon the presumption that the "Star" belives what it says, it is not a little strange that it should continue to support a party, so universally corrupt and degenerate. The idea that the few honest men among them should remain with the party to reform it, argues little knowledge of human nature. The "leaven" of corruption has been spreading in the party since its organization until the whole lump is nearly leavened. The Star had better absquatulate, if it would preserve itself from contamination.

COL. DOCKERY.

The Robesonian says, that Col. O. H. Dockery, who has heretofore been a warm advocate of general amnesty and the removal of all the disabilities of our people, now declares that Col. Waddell will not be admitted to his seat, that consequently there will be another election ordered, and announces himself as a candidate at the new election.

We hope that Col. Dockery, whom we have taken to be sincere in his declarations in favor of general amnesty, has been misunderstood. If he wants Col. Waddell's place, his shortest way, if he will regain the confidence of his party, is to contest the election, and of course as heretofore in every instance, they will give him the place, provided the Democrats of the House are not in the majority as we strongly suspect they will be.

THE GUNS.

We stated a week ago that we believed our boys had received their guns. We said so, because we saw one of them apply to Honeycutt for his guns at the depot.

The boys have not received their guns. We will give the Governor five dollars for the return of each gun.

If he will call on Mr. Wm. E. Anderson, Cashier of the State National Bank, he will pay him $15, five for the return of our pistol and ten for the return of Judge Kerr's cane.

The Cumberland county Agricultural Society has determined to have a Fair this Fall, and the Executive committee has gone vigorously to work to make the necessary preparation. The time for holding the Fair is not yet named.

CHARLES-AUGUSTIN SAINTE-BEUVE.

The most splendid genius whose creations threw a halo around French letters in this century, departed this life in Paris, on the 14th of October, 1869. When Sainte-Beuve slept with his fathers, France lost her most artistic, acute and versatile writer. Poet, historian, novelist and critic, Sainte Beuve surpassed all his contemporary countrymen in the brilliancy, beauty, finish and perfection of his works. When an Edinburgh Reviewer hesitates before the difficulties that lie in the way of a critical analysis of an author's mental characteristics and the works, his marvellous fecund and subtile brain produced, a writer far less gifted may essay such an attempt with trembling solicitude and hesitancy.—But the task I have before me is less ambitious than that undertaken by the author of a capital article in the July number of the Edinburgh Review. My purpose is to bring Sainte Beuve before the reader, and whilst I briefly trace some of the incidents of his life, also to exhibit some of the lineaments of his intellectual man. A mere glance at this great writer and not an exhaustive critique is my object.

In to-day's paper I will give an outline of his laborious life, and in the next issue, I will submit some reflections upon his genius and works.

Sainte Beuve was born on December 23rd, 1804, at Boulogne-surmer, in France. His father died two months before his birth. He was a man of culture and taste, and left a choice library to his son, in which were many books containing ample marginal annotations. These the son read "with the sympathy of a literary nature and a reverent spirit." His mother was half English. He first went to school at Boulogne, and then attended the Charlemagne College at Paris. His collegiate career was brilliant and gave great promise of future distinction. After leaving this institution he devoted himself to the study of medicine, but how long he prosecuted that profession the material in my possession does not give any answer. He continued long enough to obtain a good place in the Hospital of Saint Louis. Before he had attained his twenty third year he commenced his literary course, which finally culminated in the production of the most masterly and finished criticisms that belong to any language or nation. At the request of M. Dubois, one of his former Professors in College, who had become editor of the Globe, Sainte-Beuve prepared some critical articles that at once attracted attention and elicited praise from M. Jouffroy, "a critic of pure and refined taste."†

His first critical work was published in 1828, and excited marked praise in some of the public journals of Paris. "It transported the reader back to what may be called the pre classical period of the literature of France, to the period antecedent to Boileau and Malherbe."‡ In 1829 he made his first appearance as a poet. Whilst he failed to win the ear of the public as successfully as Alfred de Musset, Lamartine and Victor Hugo had done, he nevertheless secured the high approval of those eminent poets, and made a name for himself among the singers of France that will last as long as letters are reverend among his countrymen. He published in all three volumes of poetry, with the respective titles of Joseph Delorme, Consolations and Pensees d' Aout. His last volume was not as successful as the two that preceded it, so he abandoned that particular field for others in which he was to attain greater renown.

He again betakes himself to criticism, and about this time published his famous article on one of the most celebrated of French writers—Rousseau. It was a very damaging attack upon the fame of this author who had been lauded and copied by a large class of admirers. He also wrote very incisive and discriminating criticisms upon Boileau and Lebreno. In later life he was dissatisfied with the judgment pronounced in these articles, considering the one on Boileau to require very decided modifications, as they were written, as he said, "in all the insolence of aggressive youth." In the same connection he gave expression to an opinion that I take to be at once sound and judicious. He declared that "youth cannot possess that very delicate quality taste," for "the calmness of judgment at that period is too much troubled by passion, by ardours in special and sometimes extravagant directions to allow the balance to be held by a steady and impartial hand;" for, he continued, "youth is too confident in its own force to observe and to reflect with due deliberation."

At a late period, during the reign of Louis Philippe, he moderated his tone—became less aggressive in the character of his criticisms. But there remained all of the beauty and elegance and analytical power, only in milder efflorescence, thus distinguished his earlier productions. It was now that he wrote his splendid critical series upon his contemporaries, which have since been published in four volumes, bearing the title of "Portraits of Contemporaries."

After the revolution of 1830, Sainte Beuve wrote his novel, Volupte, which was considered successful. The Edinburg Review says that it has "many remarkable qualities," but does not evidence that the author "was endowed with the creative faculties necessary to cultivate a writer of pure fiction." It says, moreover, that "the characters are well drawn and have a distinct individuality," and that "the language is as eloquent as might be expected from the pen of Sainte-Beuve, but the story lacks interest, action, passion and power."

His next literary undertaking was the "History of Port Royal," a work now published in six volumes. I have not read the work, but according to the reviewer from whom I have so often quoted, however distinguished by all the beauty and grace which belongs to all Sainte-Beuve ever wrote, it is not a historical work of first-class interest and power. It has many excellences, but it is tedious in its monotony and void of picturesque description.

But I must hurry on the conclusion of his very brilliant career. In 1840 he was appointed Librarian of the Bibliotheque Mazarine, and in 1845 he was chosen an Academician. These he lost in the revolution in 1848. He then fled to Belgium where he received the appointment of Lecturer on Belles-Lettres at the University of Leige. He held this position for two years, during which time he delivered his lectures on Chateaubriand, since published in two volumes, which exhibit his analytical powers in their highest development. It is the most elaborate, merciless and acute dissection of an author that is to be found in the entire range of literary criticism. Nothing that Macaulay has left us affords any such example of masterly severity or "careful analytic criticism." Minute, exhaustive, deliberate, he applies the literary scalpel with a skill that is marvellous and an energy that is terrible.

In 1850 he returned to Paris. At this time M. Veron was conducting the Constitutionel, one of the leading hebdomadals of the Parisian capital. Knowing well the great ability of Sainte-Beuve, he made a proposition to him to furnish each week one critical or literary article for his paper. It is to this appreciative proposal that the world is indebted for the most perfect examples of essay and critical writing to be found in the libraries of the world. His "Monday-Chat"—Causeries du Lundi, as the called them,—ran through several years, and have since been gathered into no less than twenty-seven volumes. They are a monument of grace, beauty, power, learning and eloquence, and will eternize the name of the author. In my next, I shall have something more to say of these wonderful papers. He was author of several other works which I have not time to dwell upon. He published a volume of "Female Portaits," a volume each upon Virgil, General Joubert and Talleyrand, and three or four other volumes written towards the close of his long and distinguished life.

In a retired portion of Paris, on a "gloomy day" in October, (not November, as the Edinburg Review says,) the most accomplished, versatile and splendid critic who has ever lived "fell on sleep." On the following Saturday all that was mortal of him was consigned to the grave, without parade or pomp. He had requested that his remains should be carried from his quiet home at once to the grave, and that no funeral ceremonies should take place. Some five or six thousand persons assembled on the mournful occasion to pay their tribute of sympathy and affection to his memory. Among them were Dumas, father and son, Renan, George Sand, Taine and other leading literary celebrities. The burial was in keeping with the simplicity of the character of the deceased. His body was lowered into the grave, a simple wreath of violets was placed upon the coffin, when, M. Lacaussade, one of his executors, advanced to the head of the grave, and said:—"Adieu Sainte-Beuve. Adieu, a last, our friend." Then turning to the spectators—"Gentlemen who have accompanied him hither, be thanked in his name. Gentlemen, the ceremony is ended." Many persons lingered around the newly made grave or wandered about the cemetery of Montparnasse, interchanging sad thoughts concerning the grand intellect that had been quenched in death, discussing his stupendous power and the splendid creations of his incomparable genius, and lamenting the charm that possibly will be never again filled by any French writer, if by any writer of any other time or land.

With all his genius and manifold gifts, with all his learning and influence, he was a genial, lovable, noble hearted, charitable man—full of sympathy and humility and gentleness and grace. He was a homely man, with composed features, of rather stout physique, of pleasant aspect withal and of quiet, easy manners. Dying at sixty-five years of age, but without any true knowledge of Christ, he has passed into the spirit world, leaving behind him a stream of light as luminous as the aureola that encircled his name whilst living.—When the memory of the warriors of France shall live only in the pages of the historian or in the songs of the minstrel, the literary triumphs of Sainte Beuve, bounded by no circumscribed limits, will be renewed with greater lustre each revolving year throughout ages yet unborn. FLAT RIVER, N. C. Sept. 21st, 1870.

MR. EDITOR:—I see an article in your paper, stating, that one Jerry Ashley, an ex-Confederate soldier, a drummer boy in Capt. John Graham's company from Hillsboro, has just returned from the Jersey City Hospital, where he has been for several years, in a state of insanity, caused by a wound received in the head at the battle of Gettysburg.

I respectfully take the liberty to correct the statement made by Ashley. This boy Ashley was born on Flat River, Orange County, N. C. and is known as a vile imposter, and a rogue of the highest order.—Some two years ago, he duped the Editor of the Southerner, Mr. Pollard, in Richmond, by a villianous tale of having been lying in a Northern prison, for perhaps three years, not being able to get away on account of severe wounds, received, at the battle of Gettysburg. Mr. Pollards sympathies were immediately enlisted, in behalf of the pretended maimed ex soldier, and he went to work and raised a considerable purse for him.

A short time afterwards he was detected in Greensboro, by a Flat River gentleman, in a villianous deception, representing himself the same as in Richmond. As soon as he became aware he was recognized, he left immediately for home, where he arrived well and nearly.

He sometimes comes home and represents himself as being wounded by some Rail Road or Steamboat accident. The writer saw him some eighteen months ago, engaged as a deck hand on a bay steamer, from Portsmouth to Baltimore.

This boy is of medium size, with a downcast look, and dark complection, with an address that is calculated to deceive any person. I write the above as a warning to any person who may read it. He is now at home well and plenty of money.

Very respectfully,

G. E. W.

HOLDEN WITHDRAWS HIS BATTERY.—The Raleigh Standard, of the 17th, contains an announcement which will be read by all the true men in North Carolina with peculiar pleasure. In its issue of that date it says:

"Business complications, in no wise connected with the present proprietorship and editorial management of the Standard, render a suspension of the paper necessary for the present. In a short time our patrons and the public will be communicated with, and our plans for the future developed."

It has been studiously malignant in its misrepresentations, and with an audacity never before equalled in the South, has devoted itself to the interests of bad and profligate men. It is impossible to measure the evil it has done, and being outside the pale of journalism, an enemy of the human family, as is shown by its applause of Kirk and support of Holden, we have no hesitation in congratulating the people of our sister State on the "business complications" which have occasioned its "suspension." Our victory in North Carolina is grand indeed, when it spikes the guns of Holden's battery, and we are much mistaken if they ever limber up again, or re-open on the Conservative party Norfolk Virginian.

A gentleman in Boston had his attention attracted, as he was passing along the street, by a woman who appeared to be in great distress. He stopped and inquired what troubled her so much. She replied in a piteous tone, "My husband is dead, and I have no money to bury him." The gentleman hesitated, but she repeated her story: "If you do not believe me, come and see." He followed her into the house, and there, sure enough, her husband was lying in the coffin ready for burial. The gentleman, pitying her distress, removed his gloves, and, giving her enough money to bury her husband, bade her good morning and departed. He had gone but a few steps when he missed his gloves, and on returning for them entered without ceremony, and found the supposed dead man sitting up in his coffin counting the money he had given the woman a few minutes before. He took his gloves and remarked to the man that he need not trouble himself to count the money, as it was right, and departed a sadder and a wiser man.

CHARLOTTE, N. C.

TWENTY-ONE REASONS FOR PREFERRING THIS COMPANY TO ALL OTHERS.

1. Its cash assets are upwards of $13,000,000.00 and constantly increasing.
2. None of this is made up of promissory notes as in many Companies.
3. Its cash income per annum is over $6,500,000.00 and steadily growing larger.
4. None of this is composed of the notes-of-hand of policy-holders, as the case in many companies.
5. It has paid to widows and orphans, and other claimants under policies on deceased members, about $4 000 000.
6. Such payments are made in cash, and not partly in cancelled notes, as is the case in many companies.
7. No deductions are made from the face of a policy for premium notes when it becomes a claim, as is the case in all Note Companies.
8. The sum of $1 500,000, and upwards, in cash divided among policy-holders, (this included the dividend for the present year) as profits of the business.
9. All the profits of the business are annually divided among the assured Equitably, instead of being wholly or partially distributed among the stockholders, as is the case in all "Mixed" and "Proprietary" companies.
10. Dividends are invariably available as cash in payment of premiums.
11. The dividends are made from the start, and not postponed until after the lapse of several years, as in many Companies.
12. The Society deals Equitably with its policy-holders.
13. The Equitable has made more progress since its organization than any other Life Company in the world.
14. Its risks have been so carefully selected and its dealing so equitable, that it has never been obliged to contest the payment of a claim at law.
15. Its modes of applying dividends are more numerous and more advantageous than those of any other company in the world
16. It issues all the popular styles of policy, including "Ten Year Non-Forfeiting" and "Endowment policies."
17. The amount of new business during the year ending "December, 1 1869, was $51,021,141.00.
18. Its policies average larger in amount than those of any other company, showing that capitalists select the Equitable for purposes of investment.
19. The profits of the business are apportioned to the assured on the "Contribution Plan," which is conceded to be the only equitable mode of division, and not by the mode adopted by many companies, which is grossly unjust to a large proportion of the policy-holders.
20. It is as liberal in the conduct of its business as is consistent with safety to the assured, and does not sacrifice proper caution to an ambition to increase the nominal amount of its business as is the case with many new companies.
21. It is the favorite company in the United States, as is shown by its new business for last year, being nearly $13,000 000 greater than any other company.

THE SENTINEL.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 26, 1870.

☞ IRBY N. RAMSAY, as Business Clerk, is authorized to make contracts and give receipts, &c., &c.

MAYOR'S COURT.—Not a single case came before this tribunal on Saturday last. This speaks well for the morality of our city.

CORRECTION.—The meeting of the Executive Committee of the State Agricultural Society will be held at four instead of one o'clock this afternoon, as erroneously stated on Saturday.

ARRESTED.—On Friday night, Policeman Perry arrested James Lumsey, James Alexander and John Kerney, soldiers belonging to Co. G, 1st U. S. Artillery, for being drunk and disorderly on the street. They were kept in confinement a short time and then released upon giving a solemn promise to return at once to their proper quarters.

A BID FOR BUTTER.—We understand that Dr. Blacknall, of the Yarborough House, will pay $1 per pound for 10 pounds of the butter winning the premium at the Fair.

The festival held by the colored Baptists of this city in the basement of the Market House for the past two or three days, closed on Friday night. The object of the Festival was to raise funds for the benefit of their church, and, we understand, they have met with flattering success.

A PICTURE.—Shelburn has sent us from his Photograph and Art Gallery, Fayetteville street, a lively picture of the Raleigh Hook and Ladder Company, taken recently while the Company was out on parade. The picture is as natural as life, distinctly representing the members and their carriage and implements, with Lamson, Backalan and Edwards standing in front, and our old friend, John C. Palmer, sitting in his door in the back ground. Even the signs over the doors, in front of which they were standing, are distinctly given. Many of the members of the Company may also be readily recognized. In short, it is a first rate picture, and shows that Shelburn understands his art.

ANOTHER SPECIAL PREMIUM.—Dr. G. W. Blacknall of the Yarborough House, proposes to pay one dollar a pound for the best ten pounds of butter that shall be exhibited at the next State Fair, the product of North Carolina. Here's a chance for some of our country cousins to get something better than "the same old price for butter."

WHAT BECOME OF IT?—Gov. Holden had in his arsenal, for the use of his State troops, a large quantity of fixed ammunition to shoot North Carolinians with; but as there was only a very small quantity of it used—a charge or two fired through the coat tail of a lieutenant on Martin street and four or five at old Mrs. Foust of Alamance, one pistol shot at the prisoner Wheedon, and, may-be, a few shots at stray hogs around the camps—we would like to know what he has done with the balance of it. Is he saving it for his next paper insurrection, or does he design returning it to those he borrowed it from? We suppose the Governor feels, now, deeply chagrined that the moderation of the people prevented him from having an excuse to order Kirk and his Tennesseans, and Clarke and his negro melish, to fire it into the (to him) hateful bodies of North Carolina Conservatives.

STANDARD OFFICE.—We have neglected to call the attention of the public to the card of Maj. Wm. A. Smith, late of the Standard, in our columns, notifying all persons in debt to that office to pay him, as no one else is authorized to receipt for dues.

It is now rumored that carpet baggers J. C. Abbott, S. S. Ashley and Tim. F. Lee have relieved the office of some of its complications and that it will be revived under the editorial auspices of S. S. Ashley, and J. C. L. Harris. This indicates that the sickness of the Standard is unto death!

HONORS FROM JOHNSTON COUNTY.—We are in receipt from a pretty maiden of Johnston county of a basket of nice Scuppernong grapes, and we have been honored by a matron of the same county, who calls a twelve pound babe after us. Many thanks to them and blessings upon the ladies and the babe, we say.

HENDERSON FAIR.—We expect to give, in a few days, a tolerably extensive programme of the Central Agricultural Fair which opens at Henderson on the 11th October.

We see it announced that the annual address on the occasion will be delivered by our fellow-citizen, Kemp B. Battle, Esq., Thursday, 13th. This is a first rate selection. Mr. Battle is an enterprising man, an enthusiastic promoter of the agricultural interest of the State, and well qualified by education and habit for the duty he has consented to perform, and we promise a rich treat to those who may have the opportunity to hear him.

THANKS.—We tender our acknowledgements to the Executive Committee of the State Agricultural Society for a ticket entitling us to an annual membership of the society for the present year. As a matter of duty and of pleasure we shall, no unforeseen event preventing, be on hand.

KAPNOPHYTE.—This is the name of a new fertilizer, the mode of preparing which has been recently patented by E. Whitley & Co., of Murfreesboro, N. C. The editor acknowledges the favor of an individual right to prepare and use this fertilizer on his own farm, and intends immediately to make extensive experiments with it, and will give the result of these experiments as soon as fairly developed.

The Kapnophyte is very favorably spoken of as a fertilizer by those who have tried it, and the means of preparing it are certainly easily obtained and simple in application. We shall make an honest report of the success we meet with in its use.

OAKWOOD CEMETERY.

We are indebted to one of the officers of the Oakwood Cemetery Association for a copy of their charter and by-laws, and also an elegant map, in colors, of the Cemetery grounds. We are pleased to learn that the success of this enterprise is beyond all anticipation, showing the deep feeling among our people, that the homes of their beloved dead shall be beautifully adorned.

This Cemetery is under the charge of the Raleigh Cemetery Association, which is a corporation under a charter granted by the General Assembly. By its provisions the grounds, enclosures, monuments, flowers, shrubbery, &c., of the Cemetery are protected by the law of the land, it being a misdemeanor to commit any depredation on any of its property.

The present number of shares of stock is one hundred, making ten thousand dollars. The stock is owned by seventy one shareholders. No person holds more than five shares. So that there can be no monopoly. Looking over the list of share holders we find some of the best men of the city.—Merchants, lawyers, capitalists, mechanics, Catholics, Episcopalians, Baptists, Methodists, Presbyterians and Jews. Showing that the movement is general among all of our citizens.

The Association owns 38 acres in fee simple of as beautiful and graceful variety of hill and dale as can be found near Raleigh. These grounds are adjacent to the North-eastern corner of the city, comprising a portion of the "Mordecai Grove," the most striking exemplar of our primeval forests, known in this part of the State.

The Confederate Cemetery belongs to a different Company. It adjoins, however, Oakwood Cemetery, and is under the same enclosure.

The grave of Major Gen. George B. Anderson, who died in this city from a wound received in the battle of Sharpsburg, after a most brilliant career in Gen. Lee's army, is on the hill on whose summit is situated the Confederate Cemetery. The noble monument erected by his wife to his memory stands beautiful and commanding, in front of the more humble head stones of the soldiers who gave their lives for the same cause, in whose defence he died.

Most of the grave lots, already chosen, are situated on the hills crowned by "Chapel Circle" and "Prospect Circle."—We learn that many of the dead in the old City Cemetery will be removed, during the coming Fall and Winter, to their new resting places.

The Stockholders of Oakwood Cemetery intend to devote all receipts from stock and from sales of lots to beautifying and adorning the grounds, until they shall be entirely in harmony with the sacred and reverential feelings which all right-minded persons entertain towards their relatives and friends who have "gone before."

The officers of Oakwood Cemetery are as follows:

Geo. W. Mordecai, President.
Charles Dewey, Vice President.
P. A. Wiley, Esq., Secretary.
Wm. E. Anderson, Treasurer.

The Directors are Geo. W. Mordecai, W. R. Cox, W. H. Crow, Charles Dewey, Thos. H. Briggs, P. F. Pescud, Kemp P. Battle.

The Superintendent is W. J. Walters, an experienced gardener.

The grounds were laid out by Rev. Dr. J. B. Smith, and (after his resignation, by reason of sickness, of his office,) by Mr. Ergelhard, the landscape gardener lately in charge of the grounds of Wake Forest College, and now of those of the Insane Asylum.

At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the N. C. Ins., for the Deaf & Dumb and the Blind, held on Wednesday evening, September 21st W. J. Palmer, presented his resignation as Principal &c.

N. C. INSTITUTE FOR THE DEAF & DUMB AND THE BLIND,
Raleigh, Sept. 21, 1870.

To the Board of Directors of the North Carolina Institution for the Deaf & Dumb and the Blind.

GENTLEMEN:—I hereby tender to you my resignation as Principal of the North Carolina Institution for the Deaf and Dumb and the Blind, having accepted an appointment from the government of Ontario, Canada as Principal of the Ontario Institution for the Deaf and Dumb.

In severing a connection of ten years with the Institution as Principal, I do so with feelings of deep regret, but the duty I owe to myself and family render it necessary for me to take this step.

I can assure you that I shall ever feel a deep interest in the welfare and prosperity of the Institution, and in my new field of labor will be ready at all times to do anything in my power to advance its interests.

I am well aware that, in the discharge of the varied and numerous duties which have devolved upon me I have committed errors, but I can conscientiously say, that I have always labored faithfully for the improvement of the unfortunate children committed to my charge.

From your predecessors in office, as well as yourselves, and from all the departments of the State government, I have always received a cordial and hearty support in my efforts to promote the prosperity of the Institution, and I sincerely hope that the Old North State will continue to sustain this Institution as liberally as she has done heretofore.

I am very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
W. J. PALMER.

A resolution was passed accepting the resignation of the Principal, to take effect October 15, 1870.

The following resolution was unanimously adopted by the Board:

Resolved, That the Board of Directors of the North Carolina Institution for the Deaf and Dumb and the Blind, in reluctantly accepting the resignation of Prof. W. J. Palmer, as Principal of the Institution, feel that they would be remiss in their duty if they did not express their high appreciation of him as an officer, as a teacher and as a man. For long years past he has been a laborious and efficient promoter of Deaf mute and Blind education, and by his devotion to the welfare of this unfortunate class of our population, has endeared himself to the whole people irrespective of party or denomination; and he will carry with him, to his new field of labor, not only the love and affection of his pupils and friends, but the highest esteem of the Directors of this Institution, and the good wishes of the people of the whole State; and in his new field of labor we wish him all the prosperity, happiness and usefulness, which has so eminently rewarded his labors during the long period he has presided over this Institution.

Rev. George L. Winkler, a promising young divine of the Morravian Church, died recently in Salem.

Half Alive.

It is a sad thing to pass through life only half alive. Yet there are thousands whose habitual condition is one of languor and debility. They complain of no specific disease; they suffer no positive pain, but they have no relish for anything which affords mental or sensuous pleasure to their more robust and energetic fellow beings.

In nine cases out of ten this state of inactivity and torpor arises from a morbid stomach. Indigestion destroys the energy of both mind and body. When the waste of nature is not supplied by a due and regular assimilation of the food, every organ is starved, every function interrupted.

Now, what does common sense suggest under these circumstances of depression? The system needs rousing and strengthening; not merely for an hour or two, to sink afterward into a more pitiable condition than ever, (as is assuredly would do if an ordinary alcoholic stimulant were resorted to,) but radically and permanently.

How is this desirable object to be accomplished? The answer to this question, founded on the unvarying experience of a quarter of a century, is easily given. Infuse new vigor into the digestive organs by a course of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Do not waste time in administering temporary remedies, but make the system up by recuperating the fountain-head of physical strength and energy, the great organ upon which all the other organs depend for their nurture and support.

By the time that a dozen doses of the great vegetable tonic and invigorant have been taken, the feeble frame of the dyspeptic will begin to feel its benign influence. Appetite will be created, and with appetite the capacity to digest what it craves. Persevere until the cure is complete—until healthful blood, fit to be the material of flesh and muscle, bone and nerve, and brain, flows through the channels of circulation, instead of the watery pabulum with which they have heretofore been imperfectly nourished. sept 21-eod1w

THE LATEST PHENOMENON is a fluid without sediment and without bad smell, that renews the youthful honors of the head, however time may have blanched them, repeating the hue of nature to a shade. This marvel of science is PHALON'S VITALIA, OR SALVATION FOR THE HAIR. It stands alone.

TELEGRAPHIC.

Friday Night Dispatches.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23.—The government has ordered the issue of forgery pending against Hon. B. F. Butler, of Tennessee, in the Pension office, to be suspended until after the election in his district, he having been re-nominated for Congress! The cases have been ordered to be transferred from the Pension Bureau to the Bureau of Justice.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK Sept 23.—Five hundred Chinese will be at work in a few days grading the Railroad in New Jersey.

The Tribune's special Paris dispatch dated Tuesday evening, says: "Egress from Paris is positively prohibited. The Prussians refuse passes to or from. The Prussian advance pickets are near Malmaison, between St. Germain and Paris. No French troops are in sight. All French troops have retired behind the Paris defences. The country around Paris is deserted, only the Prussians occupy the surrounding country. The Pruss ans have entered the Seine below St. Germain, where the army of the Crown Prince is stationed. The siege of Metz has become a mere blockade."

The New York Tribune has the following from Paris: "The Republic abuses England for refusing to participate in the negotiations, transferring Rome to Italy.

FOREIGN.

LONDON, Sept 23.—A Berlin telegram, which is to be received with caution, has the following startling intelligence: "Russia is in motion to seize the Black Sea and probably the Dardanelles. A war between the Czar and the Sultan is imminent."

LONDON No. 53 at Strasburg, became the object of a terrible fire. The Prussians lost many, including commander Quinzer.

The Times says that neither the Democratic nor Republican party is sacrificing the German vote through sympathy with the French Republic.

Notwithstand the blockade, 44 ships have entered swinemund since September the 2nd. Count De Palikao is with the Emperor. The Princess Mathilde and Count Beneditti are at Bru sels.

During the sessions of the British Scientific Association, Major Saunderson presented a paper on the Physical Geography of American emigration, and also on the cotton production. The paper is highly appreciated, especially its recommendation to establish branches of the Supply Association in the Southern States. Newspapers also strongly approve this scheme

Reports from Paris via Berlin, state that all discipline is vanishing from Paris. The soldiers are mutinous, and in some cases have shot their officers.

The Examiner says that Genl. Ulrich is inclined to surrend r, but the wounded soldiers and citizens of Strasburg strongly oppose a surrender. The Germans have armed the captured Lunettes, No. 53 and No. 55 with mortars.

TOURS, Sept 23.—Metz Strasburg and Toul hold out and present at least a fortnights task. In the meanwhile Prussians will detach two corps to Lyons, Havre and Cherbourg, and send flying columns throughout the country for forage. Seventy-five thousand cavalry for this service is expected from Germany. A portion of the programme has already been realized. Steinmetz was disgraced because of the heavy losses inflicted by Bazaine. A journal in this city states that M Magne, formerly Minister of Finance, writes privately, that shortly before the change of the Government he paid on receipts for a million chassepots and 300,000 other guns which never were delivered.

MADRID, Sept. 24.—There is intense excitement along the Mediterranean sea, regarding the comito. It is spreading in all directions.—A thousand cases are reported in Barcelona alone, 400 of which have been fatal

Seventy thousand people have fled from the city to avoid the pestilence. The disease was brought from Cuba in the Steamer "Maria Pia."

FLORENCE, Sept 23.—Rome is completely occupied. The Pope is allowed to retain a guard of his own troops, but is restricted to those of Italian birth. The rest of his army has dispersed. It is thought a plebiscitum will occur on Sunday. The prisoners captured by the Italians upon occupying Rome amounted to 730, of whom 450 are foreigners.

MARKETS.

NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—Cotton heavy, sales 2,000 bales, Uplands 13; Flour, State and Western in fair demand, superfine 4 90 to 5,15, Southern unchanged; Wheat firm and in fair export and milling demand, winter red and amber Western 94 to 95; Corn unchanged and in fair request; Pork dull and lower at 25; Lard unchanged; Whiskey dull 89 to 90; Groceries dull and steady; Spirits Turpentine steady; Rosin weak.

Money very easy; Sterling very weak at 9½ to 9¾; Gold closed heavy at 13½; Governments closed heavy; 62s. 12½; Southerns generally unchanged; Tenns. 68 new 69½; Va. 68, new 64; Lou. 71, new 69; Levees 73, 85; 86½; Alba. 1.05, 5s, 69; 7s. 84, 7s 90; N. C. 6s, new 28; S. C. 90, new 68.

LIVERPOOL, Sept. 23.—Cotton dull, Uplands 9½, Orleans 9¾, sales 10,000 bales.

Saturday Evening Dispatches.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 24.—The Secretary of State transmitted to the Secretary of the Treasury, copies of the dispatches from Mexico, covering the decrees of Juan rez opening a Creek called Puerto Escondido, on the sea coast in the Southern part of Oaxaca, and a port called Barra De Tecuantepec, to the coasting trade, and the annulling decree of April 15, 1863, which opened to the coasting trade the port of Chacahua, on the Pacific coast.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Sept 24.—The Telegram's special dispatch from Ferrieres, near Paris, dated 10 o'clock to-day says: "Rifle and cannon firing was heard on the streets of Paris this morning. On the 21st it was distinctly observed from heights, that a conflict was going on, but nothing has been heard regarding the details, or the parties engaged.

Later intelligence says that a revolution is threatened by the Red Republicans who are furious against the present leaders. The Hotel De Ville will probably be staged. Resistance to the revolution will probably be impossible.

Toul was captured by storm. The town is badly damaged.

The German steamer "Hermann" sailed at 6 o'clock this morning, but returned upon seeing a French gunboat anchored outside of Sandy Hook. The Frenchman got under way and is now watching off the shore. The "Hermann" is anchored at the quarrantine.

FOREIGN.

BERLIN, Sept. 24.—The Prussians captured Toul at sunset yesterday, (Friday evening.)

TOURS, Sept 23.—Midnight. No Paris news today.

The scare at Orleans was causeless; only a small body Uhlans are at Pethiviers, twenty-three miles North-East of Orleans. Upon the approach of the Uhlans, hundred fled from Pethiviers leaving the town defenceless. The Uhlans made large requisitions. Another result of the scare was the needless destruction of the Railroad.

Three delegates from Lyons arrived to consult the Ministers. It is hoped that the troubles there will soon be settled. The red flag is still flying and will remain until after the election on October 2nd. It is reported that Bismarck has issued another circular to ambassadors concerning the war and the prospects for peace which is conceived in much milder terms than heretofore.

BOMEN, Sept. 22.—Two small villages, between Mezures and Epinal, have been burned by the Prussians, who shelled the citizens when endeavoring to extinguish the flames. The Prussians have bombarded Mantles La Ville.

Gen Wimpffen, in a recent letter says, that the Emperor surrendered at Sedan in a cowardly manner. Wimpffen proposed a movement which would have redeemed everything, but it was overruled at once.

NEWSPAPER PATRONAGE.

There seems to be a great many different ways of defining and understanding the phrase "newspaper patronage," and as a party interested in a correct definition of the same, we give the following disquisition on the subject by one who knows whereof he speaks. It may serve perhaps as a mirror, in which certain parties may be able to "see themselves as others see them":

Many long and dreary years in the publishing business has forced the conviction upon us that newspaper patronage is a word of many definitions, and that a great majority of mankind are either ignorant of the correct definition or are dishonest in a strict biblical sense of the word. Newspaper patronage is as changeable as a chameleon.

One man comes in, subscribes for a paper, pays for it in advance, and goes home and reads it with proud satisfaction that it is his. He hands in his advertisement, and he reaps the advantage thereof. This is patronage.

Another man asks you to send him the paper, and goes off without saying a word about the pay. Time passes on, you are in need of money and ask him to pay the sum he owes you. He flies into a passion, perhaps pays, perhaps not, and orders his paper stopped. This is called patronage.

One man brings in a fifty cent advertisement and wants a two-dollar puff thrown in, and when you decline, he goes off mad. Even this is called patronage.

Another man don't take your paper. It is too high priced, but he borrows and reads it regularly, and that could be called newspaper patronage.

One man likes your paper, he takes a copy, pays for it, and gets his friend to do the same; he is not always grumbling to you or others, but has a friendly word. If any accident occurs in his section he informs the editor. This is newspaper patronage.

One hands you a marriage or other notice, and asks for extra copies containing it; and when you ask him to pay for the papers, he looks surprised: "You surely don't take pay for such small matters!" This is called newspaper patronage.

One (it is good to see such) comes in and says: "The paper for which I paid is about to expire, I want to pay for another." He does so and retires. This is newspaper patronage.

It will be seen by the above that while certain kinds of patronage are the very life of the newspaper, there are other kinds more fatal to its health and circulation than the coil of a boa constrictor are to the luckless prey he patronizes.

STRASBOURG BY NIGHT.—A correspondent within the fortifications of Strasbourg vividly sets forth the scene presented nightly in that beleaguered town: "Day is the time for rest in the lines before Strasbourg. At night men gird up their loins and prepare for work; then pioneers and fatigue parties go forth to their labor under the friendly cover of the darkness; and then, too, in their turn, the French gunners peer into the night, and open their heaviest fire on every speck of light that indicates the presence of the foe, and on every spot where they think it likely that working may be going on. The view of the beleaguered town at night from the cafe of Lion d'Or, at Brumath, was beautiful—beautiful, but awful. A great conflagration lit up the lurid sky in the direction of Ruprechtsau, and the trembling townsfolk whispered among themselves that the 'Minster' was in flames; they were wrong, for in the morning the tall cathedral spire pointed grandly to the sky. Instantaneous flashes of lightning issued every second from the heavy canopy of smoke, and were followed in a few moments by the dull reverberating roar of the heavy guns, while every now and then a shell would burst in the air, scattering points of vivid light through the blackness of the night. It was beautiful, but the beauty was infernal, like that of a tiger, or of the ocean in a storm. At midnight the fire was raging terribly, and the whole sky was lighted up with the brightness of the flames."

NON-EXPLOSIVE COMBINATION BURNING FLUID

THE CHEAPEST, BEST AND SAFEST ILLUMINATING AGENT IN THE WORLD!!

No more Exploded Cans!—No more Exploded Lamps!
No more Smoke!—No more Grease!
No more Fires!!

EVERYBODY PREFERS IT AFTER GIVING IT A TRIAL!

IT costs less!—It lasts longer!—Gives a more Brilliant Light!—May be burned in hand lamps, without chimney.

Guaranteed to make a better and safer Light than Coal Oil and to be NON EXPLOSIVE!!!

No accidents have ever happened with it.

Protected by Copy right for 28 years from May 8th 1868.

The above Fluid has been in constant use for upwards of three years, and has sustained its unrivalled reputation, as a brilliant, non-explosive illuminating agent, though subjected to the severest tests. Being universally conceded to be superior to all forms of Coal Oil. It burns a better light and more of it, than any other illuminating compound. Soft, clear, steady and uninjurious to the eyes. All that is asked is a fair and impartial trial.

Among the numerous testimonials received read the following:

PHILADELPHIA, March 15th, 1869.

The undersigned, having witnessed the experiments of Messrs. Hale & Co., with their Combination Burning Fluid, take pleasure in commending it to the public. The various tests to which the Fluid was subjected, was in the highest degree satisfactory. We have no hesitation in pronouncing it to be a safe and brilliant illuminating agent. Its cheapness added to its other good qualities, should insure its introduction into every family in the country, where Kerosene Oil is used.

"VITALIA;"

OR,

Salvation for the Hair.

CLEAR AS WATER!
WITHOUT SEDIMENT!!
OPEN TO THE LIGHT!!!

For Restoring to Gray Hair its Original Color.

PHALON'S "VITALIA" differs utterly from all the hair coloring preparations heretofore used. It is limpid, sweet smelling, precipitates no muddy or slimy matter, requires no shaking, imparts no stain to the skin. Hold it to the light and it is clear and colorless. It leaves no mark on the scalp; yet it reproduces in gray hair the natural color that time or sickness may have bleached out of it.

is for one sole purpose, that of reproducing, with absolute certainty, the natural color of the hair. It is not intended as a daily dressing, nor for removing scurf or dandruff; nor for curing baldness; nor for stimulating the growth of the hair.—These objects may be accomplished after the color has been fixed with the Vitalia, by Phalon's Chemical Hair Invigorator.

THE VITALIA is a harmless and unequaled preparation for the reproduction of the original hue of gray hair, and nothing else. This is accomplished in from two to ten applications, according to the depth of shade required. Sold by all druggists.

SUCCEEDS HIS FATHER IN THE AGENCY OF THE NATIONAL LIFE INSURANCE CO., U. S. A.

For the Central and Northern Counties in NORTH CAROLINA.

The NATIONAL, under the management of his father, P. F. Pescud, Sr., secured very many warm friends who obtained policies for large amounts, and the fact that it has issued upwards of

10,000 POLICIES,

and nearly doubled its immense Capital of $1,000 000 in about two years, speaks more for its wonderful popularity than any language at my command. The rates being based on the Stock Plan, and when contrasted with Mutual Cash rates, are so much lower, that a certain and handsome dividend is secured from the date of the Policy.

I will be gratified to take applications from my friends and all wanting Policies, and shall want many active and reliable Agents, in the fields assigned me.

FOR THE IMPROVED

"UTLEY COTTON PRESS."

THE "UTLEY PRESS" So well known, and which gave entire satisfaction last season, can be obtained of me at Raleigh, or my Agents, Messrs. Mitchell, Allen, & Co., Newbern, with its improvements.

Price $175.00.

This invention of power, whereby all friction is overcome, its simplicity, economy and durability, astonishes all who see it; and the more so, that a power so simple should have remained so long unappropriated. The strain is wholly borne by the Bed Plate, Follower Block, and two 1¼ inch square iron bars, which is capable of sustaining a strain of 190,000 lbs. Thus giving much more strength than is required. WITH THIS PRESS TWO MEN CAN PACK A BALE OF COTTON WITH EASE IN EIGHT MINUTES WEIGHING FROM 400 to 550 lbs.

One man can do the work, only requiring longer time.

It occupies a very small space, and can be so placed as to receive the lint direct from the Gin or Lint Room, as may be desired. Thus doing away with baskets, and frequent handling of the lint.

It is light in weight, can be taken down or put up in 30 minutes and transported on a two Horse Wagon.

I believe it unequalled by any Press for power, convenience and durability.

Press complete—Depth Cotton Box 8 feet. Size Bale 4½ feet x26x28x50m; wt. Bale 400 to 550 lbs.

T. H. BRIGGS, Esq.: Dear Sir:—I used the "Utley Cotton Press." I purchased from you last season, and consider it to be the best Press I ever saw. Having packed bales to weigh from five hundred and ninety (590) to six hundred and twelve pounds (612). I consider it the best and most durable Press I ever saw used, and can cheerfully recommend its use to the farmers of North Carolina.
Yours truly, C. W. BYNUM.

MR. THOMAS H. BRIGGS: Dear Sir:—Yours of 13th instant inquiring as to the merits of the "Utley Cotton Press" is to hand, and in reply I would say that I have tried other Presses and consider the pain upon which the Utley Press works cheaper, simpler and more durable than any I have met with.

T. H. BRIGGS, Esq., Raleigh, N. C.: Dear Sir:—I used the "Utley Cotton Press" I purchased from you last season. I packed my own crop of cotton also other crops for my neighbors, making in all one hundred bales. I consider it superior in all respects to any Press I have ever seen and that it is every thing the patentee represents. I packed bales weighing from four hundred to five hundred and ninety-seven pounds.

POLICIES VALUABLE IN LIFE, AS WELL AS AT DEATH!!

THE BROOKLYN LIFE, IS THE ONLY COMPANY IN AMERICA, WHICH GUARANTEES

DEFINITE CASH SURRENDER VALUES,

IN CASE A POLICY IS FORFEITED FOR NON-PAYMENT OF PREMIUM.

The BROOKLYN LIFE enjoys the highest reputation for judgment of investment, economy of management, and skil and care in the selection of risks,—upon which elements of administration the security of a Life Insurance Corporation depends.

The laws of New York compel Companies in that State to calculate the Cash value of their Policies, each and every year, and a certain legal standard of reserve and accumulation must be held by the Companies to meet all their liabilities.

Insurers in looking around for Companies in which to insure, should carefully seek for this important safeguard. It will be found in the BROOKLYN LIFE.

CASH ASSETS - - - - - - - - $500,000.

YOUNG, HEALTHY, VIGOROUS AND CONDUCTED BY A WISE, PRUDENT, AND ECONOMICAL BOARD OF DIRECTORS UPON A

NEW SYSTEM,

devised by its talented and distinguished Actuary CHAS. N. MORGAN, which must make it the leading Company in America, for persons in and all who appreciate and demand the most UNQUESTIONABLE SECURITY, at rates in most cases, cons derably lower than those of the leading Mutual Cash Companies.

The Excelsior issues Policies on all the plans of Mutual or Stock Companies, extending to policy holders, all th ir really desirable advantages. Its policies being non-forfeiting, the insured are privileged to live and travel where they please in any healthy part of the world, they participate in its profits, are allowed 30 days grace for payment of renewal of premium, a cash surrender value of policy, and a privilege which has never been offered by any other Company, that of converting Policies into after the payment of 5 or more annual premiums.

☞ Hitherto, I have been restricted in the very popular Company which I had the honor to represent to Stock rates alone, which most of the Mutual, and mixed Companies have adopted. This disadvantage, together with the multiplication of many new Companies in this State who claimed to possess unusual charms, together with the extraordinary attractions presented by the Excelsior induced me to accept the management of that Company, whose plan combines all the popular features of other Companies, represented in this State, without an exception, and the additional privilege of converting policies, which the holder can not afford to keep up, or wishes to discontinue because of the death of those for whose benefit the policy was secured, into an Annuity Bond which provides an income in cash through life, or for a series of years as preferred.

Circulars giving full explanations and any other information, will be cheerfully furnished.

The most liberal arrangements, will be made with first class solicitors, to push the EXCELSIOR forward in the Old North State, to that position which her low rates and most ample security entitle her to occupy.
